

Aircraft Maintenance Engineer (AME-M) - Nov. 21, 2024

HELIWELDERS Canada LTD. (HWC) Is an approved Transport Canada / FAA / EASA AMO Repair Station and AIRBUS Helicopters approved "D" Level Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul facility, located in Langley, B.C.

- HWC is seeking a full-time AME-M to join our team
- Experience working on any of the following is considered an asset: H120, H125, H130, H135 and H145
- Compensation based on experience

Responsibilities shall include:

- Perform disassembly, inspection and repair on a wide variety of aircraft
- Completing paperwork and logbook entries
- Maintain compliance with FOD Policies and HELIWELDERS procedures
- Understand safe and applicable use of hand tools, specialty tooling, and precision calibrated instruments.
- Demonstrate safe work habits and proper use of PPE.
- Available to work overtime as required.

HELIWELDERS Benefits:

- Employee health, dental and vision coverage.
- Company pension available after 6 months. Company matched contribution.
- Opportunities for training to the right candidate

*A detailed list of all benefits shall be made available to selected applicants for review.

Qualifications:

- Current AME-M license with a minimum of 5+ years experience
- Ability to provide own hand tools required for position.
- Ability to work as a team member to meet project work schedules.

Please submit resumes via email to:

Chris Atkinson: chrisatkinson@heliwelders.com

Bart Popiela: bart@heliwelders.com

*Only those candidates under consideration for the position will be contacted.